

Dinosaurs & Dragons Quiz

1. T F Dinosaur bones are sometimes found with their organic material still intact.
2. T F Some Dinosaur bones Carbon-14 date to less than 20,000 years old.
3. T F Some dinosaur bones are found in an un-mineralized or partly mineralized state.
4. T F Behemoth was likely a “Brontosaurus,” Apatosaurus, or Diplodocus-type dinosaur.
5. T F Marco Polo described live “dragons” in his explorations of China during the 1200’s.
6. T F A paleobiologist named Mary Schweitzer has reported the discovery of organic material in dinosaur bones: including collagen, elastin, laminin, and what look like red blood cells.
7. T F According to legend, dragons were quite large, had long tails, and laid eggs.
8. T F A stegosaur-like creature is among hundreds of other known animals that are carved on an 800 - 1000 year-old Buddhist temple in Cambodia.
9. T F According to evolution theory and the Geological Time Chart, Stegosaurus dinosaurs died out over 65 million years ago
10. T F Over 1000 dinosaur-like ceramic figurines were found among many others near the town of Acambaro Mexico in the 1940’s and 50’s.
11. T F The word ‘dinosaur’ was invented in the 1840’s by a man whose last name was Smith.
12. T F According to the Journal of Paleontology, Unfossilized and/or slightly mineralized hadrosaur bones were found in Northern Alaska on the North Slope of the Brooks range.
13. T F The word ‘dinosaur’ appears in the Bible many times.
14. T F A creature that resembles a diplodocus dinosaur is reported by local natives to still live in a remote area of the African Congo.
15. T F Isaiah 30:6 mentions a “flying serpent” or “seraph” along with other known types of animals.

Answers on Back

Answers to Historical Records of Dragons Quiz:

1) D, 2) E and None, 3) T, See Job 40:15-24; 41; Isa. 30:6; and Jer. 51:34, 4) T, 5) T, 6) T, 7) F, 8) T, 9) T, 10) T, 11) T, 12) T, 13) T, 14) T, 15) T
For more details see www.earthage.org/are\_dinosaurs\_millions\_of\_years\_old.htm